

Psalm 1 Creativity

A few months ago I asked for people to draw a picture or write something that showed what they thought after reading a specific Psalm, in this case, Psalm 1.

Here are the entries I received. We only got 4, but they were good. Next time we try this, we'll see if we can double that participation number. Thanks to those who turned things in; Rusty Gillette (what a guy), Seth Allabaugh, Rachel Allabaugh, and Lydia Allabaugh too!

Psalm 1

Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked,
nor stands in the way of sinners,
nor sits in the seat of scoffers;

but his delight is in the law of the LORD,
and on his law he meditates day and night.
He is like a tree planted by streams of water
that yields its fruit in its season,
and its leaf does not wither.

In all that he does, he prospers.

The wicked are not so, but are like chaff that the wind drives away.
Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment,
nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous;
for the LORD knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.
